SCHOOL OF HONOR

YOU ARE INVITED

The School of Honor is a three-day, over-night course designed to transform today's young boys into tomorrow's great men. From civility and chivalry to spiritual weapons and armor, the School of Honor delivers timeless truths to boys as they enter manhood. In addition to dramatic presentations and fast-paced learning from our 200-page manual of honor, attendees will learn teamwork, leadership, and bravery through high and low ropes courses, paintball, outdoor skill work, and more. And to top it off, parents and family are invited to the graduation ceremony for the Mission Statement of Honor that the young men will declare together. Check out the details.

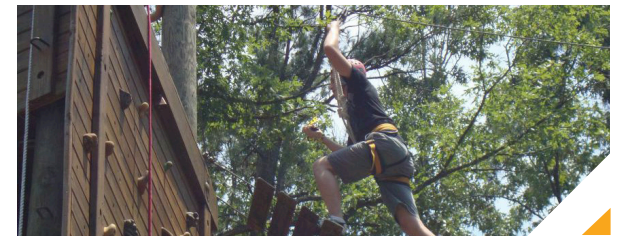

This year Logan's father, Randy Wilson, will gather the fathers and speak on "The Blessing", "Father Power", "The Language of Legacy", and "A Portrait of Daniel: Raising Sons for Influence" during some of the teaching time. Fathers, I do want to spend time praying for our sons and have times of discussion. >>

MISSION

To exalt God through manhood, as we seek His wisdom and skill in bringing honor to Him—everywhere, always.

SESSION LEADERS

LOGAN & RANDY WILSON

LOGAN WILSON is the son of Family Research Council's National Field Director, Randy Wilson. Logan was home educated and trained by his father in biblical manhood, discipline, and honor. Logan thrives on teaching young men the honor of God, the honor of manhood, and warring for all things noble. Logan does living history dramatic presentations of men of honor who changed our country and the world, by their choices and courage. Logan also teaches on the biblical foundations of our country and the men in history who have impacted our nation for God. He and his family have been featured in both national and international press.

DAVID & JASON BENHAM

DAVID AND JASON BENHAM, former professional baseball players, are also nationally acclaimed entrepreneurs. The twin brothers' business success earned them a reality show with HGTV, set to air during the 2014 fall season. Due to their commitment to traditional and biblical values, however, the show was abruptly canceled. The Benhams immediately found themselves in the midst of a cultural firestorm, but they refused to back down, deciding instead to stand and fight for what they believe. Appearing on CNN, Fox News, TheBlaze, ABC's Nightline, Good Morning America, and others, the Benhams continue to stand up for what they believe. David and Jason are happily married, and their families live on the same street in Charlotte, North Carolina.

TESTIMONIES

Tom & Vicki

“We have a sixteen-year-old son with Down syndrome who has been abundantly blessed to attend Logan Wilson’s School of Honor. Logan loves, serves, and honors God with every fiber of his being. He powerfully inspires every student to follow hard after God with an honorable servant-hearted passion. We highly recommend that you bless your son with the life-changing gift of attending the School of Honor!”

Ben

“School of Honor is a great course for young men to see what God made them to be. It has impacted my life immensely. Seeing the change in the young men who go to it is very encouraging to me. Logan is changing the lives of America’s young men.”

MAJ Chad Lewis, US Army Special Forces

“What is your role, your mission, your destiny as a man of God? Logan Wilson’s School of Honor invites you to begin a journey of holy discovery. Grounded in Biblical truth that comes alive through historical narrative, Logan’s course defies the mundane and launches young men into a life of honor.”

Anna

“As a sister of SOH graduates, I cannot begin to tell you the changes I have seen in my brothers since they went to the School of Honor. This is the stuff of heroes, and now they treat me like a princess. Thanks, Logan!”

GIVE ME TEN MEN, TEN STOUT-HEARTED MEN, AND I WILL GIVE YOU TEN THOUSAND MORE!

» “Every good and excellent thing stands moment by moment on the razor’s edge of danger and must be fought for.”

—Thorton Wilder

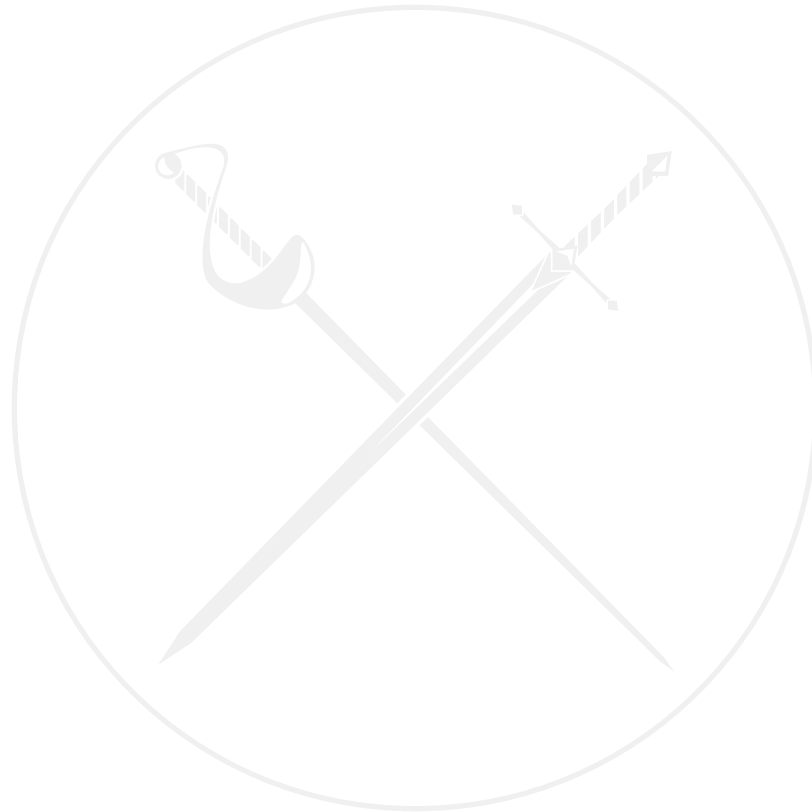

» “Give me men who can pray, men who can fight, and men who can build, and I will build a lasting civilization.”

—King Alfred

» “Masculinity is not something given to you but something you gain. And you gain it by winning small battles with honor.”

—Norman Mailer
